

Guildford Street Angel coordinator

Job Description

About the role

- Workplace: Christchurch, 23 Waterden Road, Guildford, GU1 2AZ
Hours: Flexible/ some unsociable hours, 24 hours per week, days subject to mutual agreement
Salary: £16,480 per annum
Pension
Holidays: 15 days p.a.
Closing date: 12 noon, Tuesday 26th September 2022
Interviews: Thursday 6th October 2022, Starting at 6.30pm

The project is run by the Christian based charity Guildford Town Centre Chaplaincy (GTCC), established in 2008 to demonstrate care and offer non-judgemental support to people in need in the town. GTCC does this through three distinct projects; Community Angels, Street Angels and Volunteer Chaplains.

We are looking for someone who can work on their own initiative as well as part of a team. The person appointed will take responsibility for the management and co-ordination of the Street Angels project in Guildford, including the recruitment, training, and retention of volunteers. They will need to be well organised and IT, social media literate. Interpersonal skills will be needed as the role involves working with volunteers and the public.

They will be expected to share the Chaplaincy values of being non-judgmental, selflessness, integrity and honesty, collaboration, professionalism, and excellence. Due to the nature of the work they will need to be a practicing Christian, this is a genuine occupational requirement. Some unsociable hours will be required.
